Re: Commissions Import Export S.A. v. Republic of the Congo et al., 1:19-mc-00195-KPF

Dear Judge Failla,

We represent Defendant Republic of the Congo in the above-referenced matter. We write to request an adjournment of the conference scheduled for October 8, 2019. We have only been very recently retained and request additional time to prepare for the conference. There have been no previous requests for adjournments.

Up until now, the Republic of Congo has been without counsel and a Clerk's Certificate of Default was entered on August 26, 2019. We understand that this matter is related to two different international arbitrations and enforcement litigation beginning in 1998, based on activity from the early 1990s. Considering the extensive history, our Firm will be meeting with representatives of the Republic of the Congo during the week of October 7, 2019, to determine its position on the matter.

We would respectfully request a date no earlier than mid-November to be appear before the Court. Counsel for Plaintiff Commissions Import Export S.A. does not assent to this request.

Respectfully Submitted,

By: /s/ Michael J. Sullivan
